CRRSAA Student Debt Impact Certification

The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) allows the use of institutional funds for the purpose of reengagement and retention of students. Phillips Community College of the University of Arkansas has set aside a portion of its institutional funds for the purpose of discharging student debt to accomplish this purpose.

By completing this document, I, _____, certify that I have been impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic and have experienced financial uncertainties or other difficulties associated with the Coronavirus pandemic and am seeking financial relief for my outstanding balance owed to Phillips Community College of the University of Arkansas from institutional funds received from the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA).

I also certify that I am seeking to discharge my outstanding student balance for the purpose of continuing by education through re-enrollment, obtaining an academic transcript, transferring to another college/university, or to obtain employment.

By completing the information below and signing this document, I hereby grant PCCUA permission to apply CRRSAA funds to discharge the complete balance of my debt owed to PCCUA.
