mikeroweWORKS Foundation-Ethics, Responsibility, Gratification, and Attitude in the Workplace-Debbie Hardy MRW Work Ethic Certification

The mikeroweWORKS Foundation (Mike Rowe, Dirty Jobs) developed the MRW Work Ethic Certification Program to ensure that the next generation of skilled workers have the employability skills to be successful in their jobs long term. The training curriculum is based on the S.W.E.A.T. Pledge, which stands for “Skill and Work Ethic Aren’t Taboo,” and it outlines the importance of four pillars- work ethic, personal responsibility, delayed gratification, and a positive attitude. Within the four pillars emphasis is given to 1) attitude, 2) teamwork and cooperation, 3) problem-solving and decision making, 4) attendance, 5) punctuality and reliability, and 6) respect and productivity. The training breaks down the origin of each statement and explores the employability skills and qualities that every student and worker can benefit from embracing, regardless of their job or skill set. Michael Gregory Rowe is an American television host and narrator. He is known for his work on the Discovery Channel series Dirty Jobs and the series Somebody's Gotta Do It originally developed for CNN. He hosted a series produced for Facebook called Returning the Favor in which he found people doing good deeds and did something for them in return. He also hosts a podcast titled The Way I Heard It with Mike Rowe.

10:00-10:15 Break (this may be taken earlier)
