

Workday: What's In It For Central Finance

Workday is bringing productive and positive changes for Finance Professionals throughout the UA System! As a Central Finance employee, how will you benefit from using Workday?

With Workday, Finance employees will benefit from:

System review of P-card charges requiring receipts be attached prior to submission

More availability of catalog ordering for all institutions and better purchasing power

All financial approval activity is tracked in Workday. The initiator can see the status of a request directly

---

Supplier Portal will allow suppliers to make change requests to their account information directly, approved by the COE

Workday will alleviate pain-points so Finance employees:

Will no longer need to track down missing receipts after approval date

Will not miss out on lowest available price

---

Will not have to provide a manual update to the request initiator

---

Supplier Partners will no longer have to verify and upload supplier updates
