

Phillips Community College of the University of Arkansas is seeking qualified applicants for the following position on the Helena-West Helena Campus. This job posting is for a full time, nine-month position.

Theory and Clinical MLT/Phlebotomy Instructor Helena-West Helena Campus

Essential Job Duties:

- Recruit MLT and PLB students
- Provide theory and clinical instruction to MLT and PLB students
- Develop and implement teaching strategies that foster student success
- Supervise students in local and regional clinical settings
- Evaluate student achievement of learning outcomes
- Maintain student academic records per college policy
- Participate in the development, implementation and evaluation of MLT and PLB program curricula and policies/procedures
- Assist with evaluation of program effectiveness
- Maintain respective NAACLS program accreditation/approval
- Serve on college-wide committees
- Must maintain clinical competence, develop/maintain skills in a variety of teaching/learning methods including distance education and web-enhanced courses
- Complete a minimum of 36 hours of documented continuing professional development every three (3) years and
- Perform other related responsibilities as required.

Qualifications: Candidates must hold nationally recognized certification and a minimum of a bachelor's degree in the field. A master's degree or higher is preferred. The applicant must have two years of recent, continuous clinical laboratory experience in a clinical setting; demonstrate adequate knowledge and proficiency in assigned content areas; and exhibit the ability to teach effectively at the appropriate program level. Proficient computer/technology skills and ongoing professional development are required. Candidates should submit a complete PCCUA employment application, three professional letters of reference, and photocopies of official transcripts for all postsecondary work as well as certification to Ella James, Personnel Director, PCCUA, PO Box 785, Helena-West Helena, AR 72342. Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

PCCUA is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer